

I.D. — May 2009
Vol. 56, Number 3
Design in Spain

Features

- 42 10 Names to Know
The designers and influencers at the forefront of the Spanish scene
- 52 Food for Thought
CuldeSac's 18-strong collective does its best work around the dining table.
by Jill Singer
- 58 Wrappers Delight
We ate our way through Spain to bring you the country's best-designed delicacies.
Plus: A controversial candy logo
- 60 Six of One
The studios behind the new hotshot label
Uno Design
by Fiona Ratray
- 70 Green Goblins
A new wave of sustainable Spanish architects is driving out Gaudí's ghost.
by William Bostwick
- 76 Uncommon Goods
We asked the emerging design group Surtido to rethink everyday objects.
by Monica Khemsurov
- 82 The Eternal Adventures of Don Calatrava
Relating to the proliferating and occasionally terrifying works of Spain's master architect
by David Barringer

Wall Champions coat rack, one of the many cheeky designs by the Barcelona-based RS. See "10 Names to Know," p. 42.

