Features

- 30 Electron Beam Welding in the United States
Electron beam welding has a long history of use in industry for a variety of different applications
D. E. Powers
- 36 FABTECH 2010: A Showcase for Welding's Latest and Greatest
FABTECH showcased the latest equipment and services in welding, as well as provided a platform to exchange knowledge and ideas
A. Cullison, K. Campbell, and C. Guzmán
- 46 Electron Beam Near-Net-Shape Processing Using Wire Feed
Take a look at an emerging technology that utilizes the electron beam process to manufacture near-net-shape components
K. Lachenberg
- 50 The Case for U.S. Manufacturing
Although there is an air of resignation about the loss of U.S. manufacturing, the facts show that the United States is still the largest manufacturer in the world and produces more than 20% of the world's goods
E. S. DeRocco

Welding Research Supplement

- 1-s Investigation on Welding Mechanism and Interlayer Selection of Magnesium/Steel Lap Joints
A hybrid laser-gas tungsten arc process was used to successfully join Mg alloys with mild steel with the addition of interlayers
X.-D. Qi and L.-M. Liu
- 8-s Laser Welding of High-Strength Galvanized Steels in a Gap-Free Lap Joint Configuration under Different Shielding Conditions
Manipulating the shielding gas conditions stabilized the keyhole formation, providing a vent for zinc vapor
S. Yang et al.
- 19-s The Effect of Helium on Welding Irradiated Materials
The effect of helium on the weldability of irradiated material and techniques to suppress cracking are reviewed
S. Li et al.
